

ALL APPLICATIONS MUST BE FILLED OUT ONLINE AND PRINTED. HANDWRITTEN FORMS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

1. Complete the Airport Security Awareness program

Complete the BBTCA Online Security Awareness Program. Bring a printed copy of your certificate of completion or confirmation email to your scheduled appointment. This training is valid for 3 months from the date of completion.

2. Apply for a Transportation Security Clearance (TSC) – RAIC APPLICANTS ONLY

- a) Complete an application for a Transportation Security Clearance (TSC). As of March 28th, 2024, the application process has changed. Speak to your employer about how to initiate your application.
- b) Provide two original identification documents.

Born in Canada?	Born outside of Canada?
Canadian Birth Certificate *For applicants born in Quebec – only birth certificates	Present one of the following documents: Canadian Citizenship Certificate/ Card or;
issued after January 1994 are accepted	Permanent Resident Card or;Work Permit and/or Study Permit
And;	And;
Original Valid Passport *If not valid, provide a driver's license or photo card	Original Valid passport *If not valid, provide a driver's license or photo card

c) Review the Out of Country Guidelines and bring the appropriate supporting documents to your appointment.

3. Apply for a Restricted Area Identification Card or Access Pass

Complete the application for a Restricted Areas Identification Card or Access Pass. Print and have it signed by a preestablished company signing authority. A completed application form is required for every RAIC or access pass issued including temporary pass renewal.

4. Read and sign the Conditions of Issue Form

Read the Conditions of Issue BBTCA RAIC, Access Passes & AVOP and sign.

5. Book an Appointment

Appointments should be booked online at bbtcapasscontrol.as.me

Office Hours and Contact Information

Monday to Friday, 8:30am to 4pm

* Closed every Thursdays from 11-11:30am, weekends and statutory holidays

Passcontrol@portstoronto.com

Revision: 2024-03-25